SHRI ABU ASIM AZMI:

Will the Minister of CULTURE be pleased to state:

(a) whether Government propose to declare more ancient cities in the country as heritage cities;

(b) if so, details, State-wise;

(c) the steps taken by Govenment for the protection and conservation of historical monuments; and

(d) the funds released for their proper maintenance during the last three years, State-wise?

THE MINISTER OF CULTURE (SHRIMATI AMBIKA SONI): (a) and (b) There is no provision in the Ancient Monuments and Archaeological Sites and Remains Act, 1958 and Rules, 1959 for declaring cities as heritage cities.

(c) The Ancient Monuments & Archaeological Sites and Remains Act 1958 provides for declaring ancient and historical monuments as monuments of national importance, their protection and conservation. 3667 monuments and sites in the country have been declared as monuments of national importance. The conservation, preservation, structural repairs and environmental development and provision of visitors facilities at these monuments is undertaken by the Archaeological Survey of India (ASI) in accordance with the archaeological norms. In addition to the budgetary allocation of funds for the above, Government has also constituted a National Culture Fund for channelising funds from public and private sector for conservation of heritage.

(d) State-wise expenditure incurred for the conservation and maintenance of the centrally protected monuments during the last three years is given in the Statement.
